

EAS*The Dual Career Network

Call for Papers

Bengt Nybelius Scholarship 2014

Bengt Nybelius, the founder of the European Athlete as Student Network (EAS), was a brilliant mind who settled the objectives and the structure of the organisation in 2004.

He passed away in 2011, and EAS decided to establish a scholarship to carry on the legacy of his work. Therefore, we are happy to announce the second Call for Papers of the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship.

Aims of the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship

The aim of the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship is to facilitate the integration of outstanding graduate students and young researchers in the area of dual career.

Eligibility to the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship

Regardless the nationality and country of residence, young researchers under the age of 35 years holding a degree in sport sciences could be eligible for the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship.

Requirements to apply to the 2014 Bengt Nybelius Scholarship

Applicants must submit as first author an original manuscript related to the scope of EAS. Manuscripts must not contain information presented in other manuscripts under review, accepted, or published elsewhere.

The manuscript should be written in English, between 15 and 30 pages double-spaced in Arial font size 11, including title page, abstract, introduction, methods, results, discussion, conclusions, acknowledgments (if applicable), references, tables, figures and legends, and statement of conflicts of interest.

Manuscripts must be accompanied by a cover letter, stating clearly why the work is considered suitable for the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship and explaining the importance of the study.

WebEAS Secretariat*EAS President Secretariatdualcareer.eu

c/o TASS Office - 3rd Floor, 6 North Street East. Northumbria University
Newcastle Upon Tyne, Tyne and Wear, NE1 8ST. ENGLAND

Alkotás u. 44., 1123 Budapest, Hungary

EAS*The Dual Career Network

Selection of to the 2014 Bengt Nybelius Scholarship candidates

The Board of EAS will consider the quality of submitted manuscripts and notify the 3 short-listed candidates by August 24, 2014. The three short-listed candidates have to summarize their work with a 15-minute oral presentation in English at the 2014 EAS Conference in Rome, Italy, September 11-13. At the Gala Dinner on September 12th, the Board of EAS will notify the winner of the 2014 Bengt Nybelius Scholarship.

Although EAS will not contribute financially to travel expenses and subsistence costs of short-listed candidates, they will be EAS guests at the Gala Dinner.

2014 Bengt Nybelius Scholarship Award

The winner of the Bengt Nybelius Scholarship will receive an EAS award and 500 €. The second finalist will receive an EAS award and 350 €, while the third finalist will receive an EAS award and 200 €.

Application to the 2014 Bengt Nybelius Scholarship

To be considered for the 2014 Bengt Nybelius Scholarship applications must be submitted before August 10th, 2014 (midnight CET) by e-mail to the President of EAS, Dr. Tibor KOZSLA at kozsla@tf.hu

- A copy of the manuscript
- Curriculum vitae and list of publications
- Letter of Intent of EAS Conference participation if shortlisted, whereby all candidates will benefit from the early bird registration fee

Requests of further information, if needed, could be addressed to the President of EAS, Dr. Tibor KOZSLA at kozsla@tf.hu

We are looking forward to receiving your application!

The Board of EAS