ABOUT CARTAGENA

- ✓ Cartagena is a port city and naval base in the region of Murcia, in southeastern Spain. The city was founded by the Carthaginians in about 220 BC and reached its greatest splendour during the Roman period. Among its many Roman ruins are the 1st century B.C. theatre and the Casa de la Fortuna, a villa with murals and mosaics. The interpretation centre of the Muralla Púnica contains the remains of a defensive wall from the 3rd century B.C.
- ✓ 50 km from Murcia city.
- ✓ 216,920 inhabitants.
- ✓ More than 300 sunny days per year.
